

ISO 17021-1 Internal Auditor

Learn the techniques to perform effective internal audits of organisations who audit and certify management systems, in line with the requirements of ISO/IEC 17021-1:2015, on our ISO 17021-1 Internal Auditor training course.

This 2-day course encompasses engaging modules, interactive workshops and case studies, encouraging group discussions on topics such as 'audit feedback', 'closing meetings' and 'corrective action'.

At the end of the course delegates will be equipped with effective auditing techniques as well as greater understanding of audit principles in relation to ISO 17021-1 Conformity Assessment, enabling them to improve evaluation and communication, develop more professional reporting and implement corrective action programmes.

Tutor was very experienced and had a lot of knowledge and examples to draw on when explaining different concepts and parts of the training. This was helpful in understanding how the standard is applied with real world examples.

TUV SUD Ltd

I found the course to be informative and well laid out, flowing from one topic to another complementing what was discussed in the previous session. The tutor obviously had a vast knowledge on the subject and was at ease disseminating his knowledge to the trainees.

AIS Survivex

Very adaptable tutor, tailored the training effectively to the delegates experience to maximise the value. Clearly an experienced professional.
