

Introduction to ISO 45001

Gain an understanding of occupational health and safety (OH&S) management systems, together with the requirements of ISO 45001 and its implementation, on this IOSH approved Introduction to ISO 45001:2018 training course.

By the end of this 1-day course, delegates will be able to:

- discuss clauses and terminology of ISO 45001 and its benefits
- understand the relationship between ISO 45001 and other management system standards
- start to identify occupational health and safety hazards and assess risk
- comprehend the ISO 45001 certification process

The course is built around a health and safety case study, with workshops enabling participants to look at practical issues for an OH&S, such as risks and opportunities, context and leadership, and potential improvements.

CERTIFICATES

IOSH approved Introduction to ISO 45001:2018 training course certificate

Who should attend?

The course is suitable for anyone wanting to understand the role of OH&S management systems and the requirements of ISO 45001, such as:

- those in key roles with workplace responsibilities for OH&S, including occupational health & safety professionals
- key staff and stakeholders involved in the strategy, implementation, maintenance and/or auditing of an organisation's OH&S management system
- those in organisations considering working towards ISO 45001 certification, but who currently have little or no knowledge of the standard
- auditors with experience in alternative standards, such as ISO 9001, who now wish to extend their knowledge to ISO 45001

This course is available on a standalone basis. It is also an excellent opportunity to gain the prior knowledge required for our ISO 45001 Internal Auditor or ISO 45001 Lead Auditor training courses. We offer a discount of £100 if you book this course with our ISO 45001 Internal or Lead Auditor training courses.

The tutor's attitude and delivery of the course was perfect for the audience. They were able to go through the course content and explain in a way that would be easy to understand and put to practise for members ranging from Workers to Senior Management.

Handicare Accessibility UK

Amazing tutor, with broad experience. Even though we were delegates with different backgrounds and skills, he managed to challenge every one of us according to our level of experience.

Taqa Well Completions

Very engaging and knowledgeable Tutor. He was able to apply content to real life experience which helped our understanding of the various parts of the standard. I would highly recommend the tutor.
